

RULES & REGULATIONS

By submitting your registration any form of media (via website, email or offline registration form, etc.), you have agreed to enter and participate the following race, Danang International Marathon 2026, and abide by all the terms, conditions, e-waiver set by the city officials, organizer and race supporting groups.

RULES AND REGULATIONS

1. EVENT ENTRY & REGISTRATION REQUIREMENTS

Without exception, all participants must agree to and sign the event waiver included in the registration e-form by clicking in the box “Agree”.

Minimum age of a participant is 18 years old, on race day, to enter the Marathon (42.195km), 16 years old for the Half Marathon (21km). Any participant discovered to be under the required age by registered distance will be disqualified. Any parent or legal guardian who enters a person under the required ages and participates in the race will be disqualified and banned from the race for a period of up to 2 years.

Race entry fees are non-refundable and non-transferable under all circumstances.

If some of the above topics need more clarification, in some special circumstances, please inform the organizer by email to: info@pulse.vn. The organizer will hold the final decision.

2. RACE NUMBERS & TIMING CHIPS

All registrations and BIB's assigned are strictly prohibited from being swapped, or worn by another person on race day. A person running with a BIB not assigned to them will result in the disqualification of the person, wearing the BIB, who is running with the unmatched BIB. The person to whom the BIB is registered to will also be disqualified.

All participants must wear, always, the official BIB at the start line, race route, and finish line to be identified and treated as a participant of the race.

Race BIB's must be pinned on the front of the participant's singlet, shirt, or shorts and must always be clearly visible, while on the race course and finish line. Participants who can't be verified as they pass through officials and checkpoints due to missing or obscured race numbers may be determined to have cut the course and removed from the results or disqualified. Race numbers may not be folded or cut.

The ranking winners are entitled to:

- Podium
- Trophy

- Have race results with Ranking on our event website
- Medal (if race distance is completed within allotted time)
- Finisher or runner shirt, whichever is provided in the race category
- Cash or sponsor prizes.

3. REFUND POLICY

All entry registrations for the race are considered final upon payment. Race entry fees are non-refundable and non-transferable under all circumstances.

4. RACE COURSE

The race course can either be described as the roadway between the edges and curbs or by the marks or cones.

Participants must not destroy or vandalize any public or private property. Individuals will be subject according to the Vietnamese Law for penalties and punishment with violations in and around the venue and on the race route. Participants on the race route must take full responsibility for their actions.

Participants are responsible to recognize and understand the event signages and symbols relating to the race route maps, facilities, and directions.

Participants must retire immediately from the race if ordered to do so by a member of the event's official staff, official medical staff, or any government authority, including fire and police officers.

5. THE RACE

5.1 Start

Participants are required to start in their designated race corrals.

All participants must get into their starting corral at the assigned entry points. Illegal entering such as climbing over the fence will be disqualified from the event.

Any participant late for their race's start time or attempting to enter a start corral to which they are not assigned will be required to start after all other participants have crossed the start line (start at the last wave).

All participants are responsible for knowing the event's start times, of individuals' respective races, and check-in method for their corral. All participants must remain in their corral at the appointed time to receive further instructions and get into the official start of the race. In order to maintain safety, late-arriving participants must report to the last corral.

5.2 Time Limit

The Event has a maximum race day finish time of 6 hours measured from the Marathon Start time. The Marathon course will reopen for public use on a rolling schedule based on this time limit. The aid stations will also be closed at the same time as the streets.

The event time requirement applies to all forms of entry and event participation.

5.3 Sportsmanship

Participants shall immediately and respectfully comply with the directions of any race official, event staff, and government authority. Participants may not make any public protest or display of disgust with regards to the application of these rules or any decision of any race marshal or official.

No Participant shall make a bad-faith protest against any other participants.

5.4 Conduct & Interference

At all times during the Event, Participants will act with due consideration of the safety and rights of other participants. Regardless of the circumstances or competitive disadvantage, no participant shall commit any act that endangers any other participant. Participants shall not intentionally obstruct, impede or interfere with the forward progress of another participant. Actions such as these are safety hazards and participants endangering others will be banned from future events or organizer and associates of the organizer in the region.

5.5 Course-Cutting

Participants must remain on the race course, which is determined by the roadway's edges and curbs or the marks and cones. Those who intentionally shorten the race route, or "course cutting" will be considered disqualified. Any participant that abandons the race course, no matter the reason, must re-enter the race at the last post or else will also be disqualified for course-cutting. Moreover, a course-cutting violation can be decided by eye-witness reports, surveillance equipment and video or failure to register times at timing mats or present in race photography. Participants whose split times are missing or irregular at official timing checkpoints will be reanalyzed and considered for disqualification.

5.6 Unauthorized Persons

Only participants who registered to join the race are allowed along the course, start & finish area. No other person is authorized to be on the course unless they are registered participants. All unauthorized persons and not having issued BIB numbers shall be directed to leave the course.

5.7 Participant safety

6. RESULTS & AWARDS

The top 3 female and male finishers in Marathon (42.195km), Half Marathon 21km, 5km distance will receive a medal and a prize.

All official finishers, within the respective cut off times, will receive a commemorative medal.

6.1 Finisher medals & finisher t-shirt

All runners who cross the start and finish line during the event will receive their finisher shirts (42.195 km and 21km races)

All runners who cross the finish line within the respective cut off time for their respective registered races will receive the race medal. (42.195km, 21km and 5km races)

6.2 Did Not Finish (DNF) participants

Participants who finished the race beyond the cut off time given to them for their respective race will be marked as Did Not Finish - DNF in the results page.

All DNF participants are not eligible to receive the medals. The reason is that the participant did not finish the race in the allotted time given. The medal is a privilege not a right to participants, the registration is the chance to earn the medal and not a payment for it. The medal is a symbol of achievement making it not for sale.

6.3 Official times for all races

All runners are timed electronically by the organizer, the system reads your chip attached to your BIB. Do not at any time cut, peel, bend, or damage your BIB and chip, protect your BIB's. The net time is when the chip crosses the start line and when it crosses the finish line.

The official competition time used to determine the competition's ranking is gun time. Gun time is the amount of time the gun is fired until a participant runs past the finish line.

All official times "Gun times" and "Chip time" are provided on the results page of the official race website.
